ABOUT ME

My name is Noemi, and I've chosen to build my life around one word:
freedom

I'm a travel content creator, a digital nomad, and a dreamer who turned the need to explore into a real profession

Through my channels, I share stories and adventures from all around the world

I create authentic content to inspire those who dream of leaving, those who need a reason to go, and even those who don't yet know they need one

I collaborate with tourism boards, hotels, brands, and many others to bring meaningful stories to life, showcasing destinations and experiences through a fresh and original perspective

SOME VIRAL CONTENT

I specialize in creating viral content designed to capture attention from the very first second.

My work combines powerful hooks, strong visual impact, emotional storytelling, and optimized descriptions to maximize performance across social platforms.

I create content that goes beyond simply looking good: it tells stories, engages and converts.

From short-form videos to lifestyle and travel content, I develop creative materials crafted to be shared, saved and to bring real clients to the brands I collaborate with
